I. Publications

In 1963 the Institute published the following books:

   Pp. XVI + 760 + 8 plates. The author is at present visiting Professor at Hunter College, New York. The book is reviewed in this issue of Balkan Studies by Professor Harry N. Howard.

   Pp. 42 + 5 plates + 1 map. The Greek version of it was published by the Institute in 1959 (Serial number 30). The author is at present Assistant Professor at the University of Thessaloniki.

   Pp. VIII + 155 + 12 plates. The author is Professor of Modern Greek History at the University of Thessaloniki. The translation from the original unpublished Greek text is by T. F. Carney, Professor of Classics at the University of Sydney, Australia.

4. (Serial number 64): Christóforos A. Náltas, 'Ανατολική Ρωμυλία. 'Η κατάληψη αυτής υπό των Βουλγάρων και δ ναυτικός άποκλεισμός τής 'Ελλάδος 1885-1886.
   Pp. 278 + 1 map. The author is member of the Board of Scholars of the Institute. The book is reviewed in this issue of Balkan Studies by Professor Constantin Vavouskos.

5. (Serial number 65): John Baxevanis, The Port of Thessaloniki.
   Pp. XII + 99 + 2 plates. The author is at present lecturer at the City College of New York.

6. (Serial number 66): K. Mazarakis-Ainian, 'Ο Μακεδονικός Αγών.
The book contains the memoirs of the late General K. Mazarakis-Ainian, a distinguished soldier, statesman and author, who took active part in the Guerilla war in Macedonia during the crucial years 1903-1908. The introduction is written by his son, John Mazarakis-Ainian, at present Governor of the Prefecture of Castoria.

7. (Serial number 67): Feriz Berki: 'Η Ὀρθόδοξος Ἐκκλησία ἐν Ὑφαντία [The Orthodox Church in Hungary]. Pp. 61. The author is Vicar of the Orthodox Church in Budapest.

II. Lectures

In 1963 the following lectures were given at the Lecture Hall of the Institute:

1. Emanuel Turczynski (Südosteuropa Gesellschaft, München): Oesterreich und Südosteuropa während der Balkan Kriege. It will be published in the next issue (5,1) of the Balkan Studies.

4. Speros Vryonis (University of Los Angeles, California): The Decline of Medieval Hellenism in Asia Minor and the Process of Islamization, 11-15th Centuries. The lecture was given in Greek.

III. Research Fellowships

—Professor G. G. Arnakis of the University of Texas, Department of History, was in Thessaloniki from February until August on a visiting research professorship under the Fulbright Program. He continued at the Institute the preparation of his five volumes’ work on the American Philhel- lenes during the Greek War of Independence.
— Professors Charles and Barbara Jelavich, of the Indiana University, Department of History, are in Thessaloniki on a grant by the Institute for Balkan Studies and the Rockefeller Foundation for research work in the field of Modern Greek History.

— Dr. Dimitrije Djordjević, of the Historical Institute of the Serbian Academy of Sciences in Belgrade, is in Thessaloniki under the Program of Cultural Exchange between Greece and Yugoslavia for research work at the Institute on the history of the relations between Greece and Yugoslavia late 19th and early 20th century.

IV. Guests and Visitors

The Institute had the pleasure to include among his guests and visitors in 1963, Professor C. C. Furnas, Chancellor of the State University of New York at Buffalo, Professor E. Condurachi, University of Bucharest and Rumanian Academy of Sciences, Professor G. Moravcsik, University of Budapest, Professor G. H. Blanken, University of Amsterdam, Dr. Douglas Dakin, University of London, Professor Peter Charanis, Rutgers University, New Jersey, Professor Adam Pollis, Hunter College, New York, Professor A. Daskatakis, University of Athens, Professor Uriel Heyd, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Professor Miloš Velimirović, Yale University, Professor C. Yerakaris, State University of New York at Buffalo, Professor Poly Enepekides, University of Vienna, Dr. William Bredo, Stanford Research Institute, California, Dr. Rex Witt, London, Dr. R. Fletcher, Oxford University, Professor Sabri Siyavusgil, University of Istanbul, Professor Fahir Armaoglu, University of Ankara, Professor Theo Stavrou, University of Minnesota, Mr. David Posner, State University of New York at Buffalo, Dr. P. Karlin-Hayler, Fondation Byzantine, Bruxelles.

BASIL LAOURDAS
Director of the Institute

FEIER FÜR CYRILL UND METHOD IN SALZBURG